LONDON CABLE LETTER

Comments of Leading English Newspapers

Upon the Position of Italy's Premier.

Lord Salisbury Requested by Rudini to Become a Moderator—The Piney Parnellites.

Copyright, 1891, by New York Associated Press.

London, April 3.—The opinion here is setting more steadily against the action of Marquis Rudini in the matter of the lynching of the Italians in New Orleans.
Tomorrow's leading weeklies devote attention to an analysis of the position and generally discuss the affair from the standpoint of the United States Constitution.

The Spectator holds that thinking Americans will admit the impropriety of the constitution and are bound to remedy the defect all the more because there is a small chance of being compelled to remedy it.

Touching the talk of war, the Spectator ridicules the notion of Italy declaring war against one of the greatest powers of the world. "A power capable within six months of buying and building a fleet that would block every port of Italy. American ingenuity would be so stimulated to outdo itself that it would turn every steamer that could float into an improvised ironclad."

The Economist says: "Marquis di Rudini and his Government are in a cul-de-sac. They cannot sit still, they cannot fight and they cannot obtain the redress they want without fighting.
Italy's allies will never permit her to risk a war that would disturb the European combinations. The United States holds the exceptional position that it cannot be conquered by any power or probable combination of powers, even if all Europe was allied and made the attempt."

"Baron Fava's note," said the Catholic Tablet, "begged every question at issue. The real explanation of the precipitate action of the Italian ministers must be found in the fact that they feel public opinion in Italy required some demonstration."

The Conservative press apply the difficulty to illustrate the evil that would result from a concession of home rule to Ireland, and the comparison will have an undoubted potency in the electoral platforms.

A report prevailed in political clubs tonight that Lord Salisbury, on the investigation of Rudini, would offer to mediate for the adjustment of the difference between Italy and the United States. A high foreign office official said the question had not been discussed. He admitted that a communication had been sent to Sir Julian Pauncefote to report on the question, especially as affecting the position of British subjects.

The Nationalists discounted their victory in Sligo to some extent, by exaggerated predictions as to their majority.
The speeches made by the Parnellites after the defeat showed unabated pluck.
The Parnellites tried to dupe Catholic votes by a display of bogus telegrams from Rome, saying that the Pope approved the course of the Parnellites.

AUSTRALIAN FEDERATION.

All the English Papers Remarkably Silent upon the Subject.

London, April 3.—The creation of the commonwealth of Australia, by a Federation Convention at Sydney, is barely noticed in the morning papers. The Star, however, says: "The Australians have copied the Constitution of the United States, avoiding its defects and evils. It will accordingly be a democratic Federation."

The Federation adopted a clause in their constitution providing that the chief executive of the Federation shall be known as the Governor-General, and shall be appointed by the Queen. The proposition that the Governor-General be elected by a popular vote was rejected by a vote of 35 to 30.

ENDED IN A ROW.

Stormy Session of the International Miners' Congress in Paris.

Paris, April 3.—During today's session of the International Miners' Congress the advisability of a general strike was brought up and a stormy debate ensued.
Discussion was brought to a close amid the utmost disorder, the socialist and anarchist delegates executing delegate Basley, who took an attitude of moleration. Finally it was decided to put the question to a vote tomorrow. A howling mob gathered outside the building and threatened vengeance on Basley, who had made an escape by a back door.

Parnell Rebuked.

Sligo, April 3.—The polling for member of Parliament resulted in the election of the McCarthy candidate. The figures officially announced this evening are: Alderman-Colony, anti-Parnellite, 3206. Alderman-Billon, Parnellite, 2420. The majority for the anti-Parnellite is 780. Dillon's agent has lodged a petition against the return of Colony on the ground that the presiding officer of the Grange polling place unlawfully adjourned the polling while he went to refresh himself.

A FOREST RESERVATION.

Large Tract of Land Set Apart Adjoining Yellowstone Park.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The President today issued a proclamation based on the act to repeal the timber culture laws, etc., proclaiming: "That there has been and is hereby reserved from settlement and set apart for a public forest reservation, all that tract of land situated in the State of Wyoming, contained within the following boundaries:
"Beginning at a point on the parallel of 44 degrees 50 minutes, where said parallel is intersected by meridian of 110 degrees west longitude, thence due east along said parallel to the meridian of 100 degrees and 30 minutes west, thence due south along said meridian to the forty-fourth parallel of north latitude, thence due west along said parallel to its intersection with the west boundary of the State, thence north along said boundary line to the intersection with the south boundary of Yellowstone National Park."

Warning is expressly given to all persons not to enter or make settlement upon the tract of land reserved by this proclamation.

CALIFORNIA'S POPULATION.

Detailed Statement of the Different Races Residing in the State.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Superintendent Porter today made public the result of the special count of races of the State of California. The object of this special count was to separate the Chinese and Indians from the rest of the population, as required by the laws of that State, for the purposes of State apportionment.

The following table shows the population of the State by races in 1890 and in 1880:

White, 1890, 1,111,558; 1880, 767,181.
Colored, 1890, 11,437; 1880, 6018.
Chinese, 1890, 71,681; 1880, 75,132.
Japanese, 1890, 1099; 1880, 86.
Indians, 1890, 12,355; 1880, 16,277.
Totals, 1,208,130, and 864,694.

The statement further shows that the white and Chinese population of the State as a whole has increased by 241,- 000 since 1880. There has been an increase in the Chinese population of San Francisco of 400.

There have also been material increases in the Chinese population of the counties of Fresno, Kern, Los Angeles, Monterey, San Bernardino, San Diego, Solano and Sonoma.

The counties in which the Chinese population has materially decreased within the last decade are Alameda, Butte, Calaveras, Del Norte, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, San Benito, Shasta, Sierra, Trinity, Tuolumne and Yuba.

INDIANS AS SOLDIERS

OFFICERS FIND IT HARD WORK TO ENLIST THEM.

They Absolutely Refuse to Join the Infantry—Clever Ruse of Geronimo's Band to Get Back to Arizona.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—News received at the War Department of the result of efforts being made by the western army officers to carry out the provisions of the Army Appropriation bill, say that the enlistment of Indians as recruits is very discouraging.

Officers report that the Indians will not enlist in the infantry under any circumstances, as they abhor walking.
They will not enlist in the cavalry except as scouts, because they do not care to bind themselves to five years' service no to be subjected to removal to distant parts of the country. Then they want their women with them and a great majority of the bucks are physically unfit for military service.

It is doubted whether a single Indian company can be recruited in the West, but the outlook in the South is more hopeful. At Mount Vernon barracks, Alabama, where the Apache Indians who were led by Geronimo are, it is said all the Indians, some thirty-five or forty, are about to enlist.

These Indians are said to be progressing rapidly in the path of civilization and an almost incredible fact is reported that the renowned warrior, Geronimo, who was for years the terror of the West, is now a prominent teacher in the local Sunday school.

DEATH OF H. K. JEFFORDS.

Passes Away After a Lingular Illness at His Home in Tucson.

Special Dispatch to THE REPUBLICAN.

Tucson, April 3.—Hon. Harry R.
Jeffords, United States District Attorney for Arizona, died about 11 o'clock today, of Bright's disease. Mr. Jeffords was 36 years of age, a brilliant young lawyer and a man highly esteemed by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

Mr. Jeffords was a native of Mississippi. His father was for many years a prominent member of the bar of Mississippi and was repeatedly honored by his fellow citizens, being elected judge of his district and also elected to Congress.
On account of failing health Mr. Jeffords came to Arizona in 1884, where for some time his health improved. In 1886 he was elected District Attorney of Pima county, holding the office two years. In 1889 he was appointed United States District Attorney for Arizona by President Harrison, which position he held at the time of his death.

While attending United States Court at Prescott last July, Mr. Jeffords was stricken with mountain fever.
This brought on a renewal of his severe attacks of rheumatism, from which he never fully recovered. Coupled with this came Bright's disease and gradually his strength deserted him, his latest illness being accompanied with much pain.

OLSEN'S TRIAL.

The Prosecution Tells the Jury What It Expects to Prove.

MERCED, Cal., April 3.—The prosecution in the Olsen-Ivett murder trial began this morning. On his opening statement of what they intended to prove the District Attorney said:

"We intend to prove that Olsen told a man in 1888 that if he was born to Ivett he could kill Ivett and easily prove an alibi, and that two years ago Olsen told some man that $2000 could be made by killing Ivett, and since the murder an agent of Olsen had threatened said man if he testified to this." The prosecution then closed their opening statement and a recess was announced.

AN ITALIAN PLOT.

Aliens Planning for Bloody Revenge.

Pittsburg to Be Attacked and Sacked.

A Naturalized Citizen Exposes the Scheme—Police Officials Keeping a Sharp Lookout.

Pittsburg, April 3.—A special from Newcastle, Pa., says: Today Sebastian Cabarro, leader of the 330 Italians employed near Wampum, told a strange story. Cabarro, who is a naturalized citizen and property owner in Wampum, seemed to place considerable weight upon the information imparted.

He said a strange Italian asked him if he would go into a plot to avenge his countrymen who had been killed at New Orleans. The stranger said 20,000 Italians would be brought into Pittsburg in five hours' time and with the aid of guns, by surprising the citizens, they could be able to take the city without much trouble.

He strongly urged Cabarro to get the Italians at Wampum to consent to meet others in Pittsburg at a given signal.
He then told how every Italian settlement in Allegheny and Beaver counties were receiving the same information, and how each settlement expected to send a large delegation in the afternoon to Pittsburg.

The envoy left for Carbon to stir up the Italians there, and said a secret meeting was to be held in the near future to talk the matter over among themselves.

A dispatch from Wheeling states that 2000 Italians near Moundsville now employed on the railroad, and who have been drilling, intend to go to New Orleans, though for what purpose they refuse to state.

Whatever of truth there may be in the report from New Castle as to the attack on Pittsburg in the case of trouble between this country and Italy, one thing is certain. For the past week an unusual number of Italians have been arriving in this city daily and today squads of twenty or thirty were unusually numerous. The police department has been quietly at work securing a list of several hundred Italian boarding houses and their daily invoice of strangers are under strict supervision.

FITZSIMMONS AND HALL.

Wonderful Amount of Talk and Bluff on the Part of Each.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Harry Ballard, city editor of the Inter Ocean, said today, in regard to the Fitzsimmons-Hall matter, that three weeks ago Clark, on behalf of Fitzsimmons, deposited with him $2500, to bind a match with Hall; that he had received dispatches from Jim Ryan, whom he did not know, and John Grant, president of the Astoria Club.
Grant wanted the $2500 sent on to Astoria, but to this Clark demurred. If Hall means business he should send some one here to cover the money. Mr.
Ballard said that the San Francisco Evening Post, of March 30, says that Joe Harris would that day forward $2500 here to cover Fitzsimmons' deposit, but he had heard nothing of its arrival as yet.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Joe Harris, backer of Jim Hall, this afternoon received a telegram from J. Grant, president of the Astoria Athletic Club, saying the club had offered to deposit $17,000 in any bank in Astoria as a purse for Hall and Fitzsimmons. The club, however, requires a deposit of $1000 by each to bind their appearance in the ring.
Grant states he has not yet received any information in regard to the subject.
Hall has already deposited $5000. Hall and Harris leave tomorrow for Chicago, expecting to meet Fitzsimmons there in about ten days.

TROUBLE IN VENEZUELA.

Another Murder of an Englishman Over the Boundary Dispute.

PANAMA (via New York), April 3.—The old boundary question between Venezuela and England and the ill-feeling resulting therefrom resulted in a murder last month. William Campbell
